

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Bredet Services Inc. named a Sage Community Service Award Winner for 2009

Toronto, ON – January 15, 2010 – Bredet Services Inc., a Sage North America business partner specializing in the sales, installation, implementation and training on several Sage products Sage MAS 500, Sage Accpac, Sage CRM, Sage Abra HRMS, Sage FAS, and Sage Pro Series, has received the 2009 Sage Community Service award. Bredet Services Inc. has an impressive track record of giving back to their community and has demonstrated commitment to supporting their community through corporate citizenship and philanthropy.

Sage Community Service award recognition is earned by Sage business partners that have raised the bar in terms of corporate responsibility. Recipients are nominated by their peers for consideration for this prestigious award. By recognizing the need to give back to the community through volunteerism and charity work while supporting The 19th Annual Children's Wish Car Rally, the Canadian Cancer Society, The Terry Fox Foundation, Savis of Halton, Halton's Women Shelter and also provided for a family of four for Christmas, Bredet has proven to be a role model for partners who are dedicated to supporting their local communities.

"The Sage Community Service award acknowledges that Bredet Services Inc. shows true leadership in charitably supporting its community," said Jodi Uecker-Rust, President, Sage Business Solutions Division. "we extend our congratulations and sincere thanks to the entire team at Bredet Services Inc. for their efforts."

"As President of Bredet Services, this award was truly an honour to our team and meant more personally than any other award we have received to date" says Debbie Breuls who founded the company 26 years ago.

In January 2010, Sage Community Service award recipients will join all 2009 Sage Partner Advantage Award Series winners for an executive retreat at the Biltmore Resort & Spa in Phoenix, Arizona.

What differentiates Bredet Services from other Partners?

Bredet Services Inc. has spent nearly three decades earning its reputation as a customer-centric company that builds long-term, mutually rewarding business relationships. They provide outstanding customer service and use their years of experience to develop solutions that utilize the newest and most innovative technologies and implementation methodologies.